New Business:

Presentation by Leverage Team to explain to the board the creative process for the selected facility logo and name options. After the presentation, a vote was taken of the members present.

A blind vote was cast by each board member, with the unanimous vote to select Central Park Place as the new name and have the abstract shape as the new logo. The new name and logo will be revealed at the Encounter the Arts Event and then a final request for City Council approval will be on the 10/17/2022 agenda
